

BETH L. WRIGHT NAMED CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER FOR CARNEGIE MUSEUMS

PITTSBURGH, PA, February 19, 2025— Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh announced today that Beth L. Wright, CPA has been named its new Vice President, Treasurer, and Chief Financial Officer. Wright is currently Director of Finance and Operations for Chartiers Valley School District. She previously served as Chief Financial Officer and Senior Director of Enrollment for Propel Schools, Inc., where she served a regional network of eight public charter schools and the Propel Schools Foundation.

Wright served earlier as an Accounting Manager at EQT Corporation and a Senior Audit Manager at R.D. Hoag & Associates, P.C. She received a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the University of Pittsburgh. She will join Carnegie Museums on April 22.

“Beth Wright impressed the search committee as an experienced professional with highly relevant experience in a complex organization with many structural similarities to our institution,” said Steven Knapp, President and CEO of Carnegie Museums. “She has a strong record as a collaborative leader, an excellent listener, and a hands-on manager who earns the loyalty of her staff and the respect of her colleagues.”

“I am thrilled to be joining the Carnegie Museums team,” Wright said. “I’ve been visiting the museums all my life, and I still feel the awe that the four Carnegie Museums inspire on every visit. I can now look forward to being a part of bringing the joy of the museums to future generations.”

Founded by Andrew Carnegie in 1895, Carnegie Museums is a family of four dynamic, distinctive museums: Carnegie Museum of Art, Carnegie Museum of Natural History, Carnegie Science Center, and The Andy Warhol Museum. The museums reach up to 1.5 million people annually through exhibitions, educational programs, outreach activities, and special events.

# #